Policy Guideline 01 - Privacy

Collection, Use and Disclosure of Personal Information

U3A Moonee Valley collects personal information when individuals apply for membership, either online or using a printed form. The information collected includes contact details, amount and method of payment, and optional information about the member's skills and experience which may be of assistance to U3A Moonee Valley in a volunteer capacity.

This information is used for the purpose of administering the affairs of U3A Moonee Valley and communicating with members. Any other disclosure will only be with the individual's prior consent or as required by law.

Personal information is also collected about individuals making enquiries about U3A Moonee Valley and its work, whether by post, telephone, or e-mail. This information is used to respond to the enquiry, and for subsequent follow-up if required. U3A Moonee Valley will not disclose information about enquirers without their consent or as required by law. U3A Moonee Valley does not insist on enquirers identifying themselves, respecting their right to remain anonymous, but this may limit our ability to respond and assist them.

Web Site

As common with web sites, when someone accesses U3A Moonee Valley's web site, log files are generated by the web server that show the IP address of the visitor, date, time, and pages visited. U3A may review information in web site logs from time to time and logs are periodically deleted. Information in web logs is used in an aggregated form to generate statistics about access to our site.

Membership Details

U3A Moonee Valley does not and will not sell, rent or share our membership database or membership mailing list. U3A uses e-mail to communicate with members.

Credit Card Security

U3A Moonee Valley takes your credit card security very seriously, using the latest technology to ensure all electronic transactions are safe and secure. We do not process or store credit card information on our own or the MyU3A servers. Instead we utilise third party secure gateway providers who have been accredited as PCI DSS (Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard) compliant.

Consent for Disclosure

While U3A Moonee Valley does not generally disclose personal information to third parties without the express permission of the individual concerned, there are some circumstances where it is necessary that we disclose information with implied consent. U3A defines "implied consent" narrowly.

For example, U3A Moonee Valley 's web pages and electronic mailing lists, like those of many other organisations, are hosted by external organisations. Information that you provide to U3A Moonee Valley via the Internet passes through one or more service providers' systems in order to be received by U3A Moonee Valley and/or, we may disclose information to such a service provider when necessary to provide you with a requested service such as to subscribe you to one of our mailing lists. In this regard U3A Moonee Valley arranges hosting services only with organisations or individuals who have privacy policies/practices that are in accord with U3A Moonee Valley's privacy policy.

Security of Personal Information

U3A Moonee Valley keeps membership and mailing list subscriber details and web server logs on controlled facilities that are secured against unauthorised access. Proof of identity is required before information is released to any person, including a member.

Access, Correction, Update or Deletion of Personal Information

U3A Moonee Valley Members with online access to their own personal information may see what information is held about them, or to correct or update this information. Members may also contact us by Post, email or phone, to see what information is held about them, or to correct or update this information, or to be removed from our membership database and/or mailing list.

Changes to Privacy Policy

This policy may be updated from time to time, but any changes will not reduce the privacy protection set out above and will not affect information previously collected, unless required by law or otherwise beyond U3A Moonee Valley's control, e.g. technological changes. Any such changes to this policy that adversely affect privacy protection of U3A Moonee Valley members or U3A Moonee Valley's other contacts will be advised by email or the post.

If you have any queries or comments concerning this privacy policy, contact us by post, email or phone as listed above.
